NINETEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BROOKLYN SOCIETY

FOR THE

Relief of Respectable, Aged, Indigent Females.

THE Nineteenth Anniversary of this Institution brings with its note of existence no new features to elicit the special attention, or startling interest of the community in whose bosom it has had its being, and on whose charity it has so far prospered, and now rests secure.

The same general statements, with but little variation from past years experience, must still be given—i. e., its success as one of the best charities of Brooklyn, and its emergence from debt and other minor difficulties, that clouded its progress in the earlier years of its existence.

The subscription lists, from the various churches represented, show no diminution of good will and cordial interest for its support. The permanent Fund begins to yield a noticeable interest to aid its yearly disbursements, and may in time save the toil and humiliation of yearly solicitations. Still the hopes of the managers have been far from realized by the slow additions made to its capital.

The first donors to this fund were under the impression that it was only necessary to call the attention of the community to this desirable and effectual aid, by their own example of donations, to ensure its success and the ready co-operation with them, by the more wealthy portion of the citizens. To a considerable extent it has been done, but the past year's additions to this fund, do not justify the anticipation of a very large revenue from this source alone, sufficient to relieve the managers from their annual calls upon the liberality of their friends.

It has been suggested to them to make a renewed appeal to the more influential citizens, and to those who are about disposing of their surplus means by Will, or otherwise, to remember these aged mothers and sisters in this Institution, as needing all they may have to bestow in substantial sympathy. They are a class of indigent citizens wholly unable to support themselves, and yet they shrink in their respectable poverty from asking a public support. They come to the ladies who are appointed to this work of christian love, with the diffidence of unfamiliar solicitation, and are received into this Asylum, as unfortunate sisters of the same family with themselves in God's household. They are not paupers, to be placed amongst those who have fallen beneath the consideration of private aid, and for whom our admirable State Charity so well provides. They ask the more private shelter of this "Home for the respectable Aged," for a few brief years, or days, it may be, ere they find that protection and rest beyond the grave, promised to them and to us. Remember them we beseech you, in disposing of your worldly goods. You may soon meet and share with them, where there can be no inequalities of riches or position, in that Home provided for all, by the Father of all. Give to this Institution your hearty support, and these feeble ones will be speedy messengers of good tidings for you to the throne of Grace.

They seek but rest—rest for the weary, rest for the aged pilgrim through life's thorny pathway, through its desert waste of disappointed affections and hopeless support;—rest, ere they pass the dark portal, to a brighter, and it is hoped a happier home than this world has given them. This is all they ask, and all this "Home" can promise them; that it shall prove a happy resting place, depend smuch upon their own disposition to make it so. Every provision that is consistent with good order and comfort is supplied to them by this society without stint or price, and with themselves alone lies the good will and gratitude to appreciate what is done for them, and to make it also a thankful bond of love with those who minister to them, and to Him, who provides even for the sparrows' needs on earth. This "Home" has been not inaptly called the vestibule of the grave, but in conversation with one of the aged inmates she remarked, "that it had far better be called the preparation room for heaven—it was much nearer that, she thought." A beautiful sentiment, and one to be considered by the more dissatisfied spirits in the Home, which the managers feel a pride in saying are but few, and are lessening every year. A very general satisfaction is manifest amongst them as regards their condition and the comforts afforded to them, and there are very many fine examples of christian faith and trust amongst them. The surplus over the yearly expenses will not justify many more admissions at present. The expenses are heavy—the building shows age too, and requires frequent repairs, and unless very energetic measures are taken to secure donations and subscriptions by the managers, the coming year must be one of rigid economy and circumscribed action.

The trustees of Greenwood Cemetery, with great liberality, donated to this Institution, through Mr. J. P. Martin and C. P. Smith, Esq., 5 lots of ground, well located for burial purposes.

This was the more acceptable, as the lots owned by the society in the Cemetery of the Evergreens were full, and measures were being taken to provide other ground. The officers of the Home feel very grateful for this timely aid, and repeat here, their sincere thanks to the trustees of Greenwood for their valuable benefaction.

At, or near the same time, an offer of burial grounds in the Cypress Hill Cemetery was made through the Advisory Committee, for the use of the Graham Institution, which was most gratefully received; owing to some outlay being necessary to secure them, which at the time was impracticable, the matter was deferred but most probably can be effected during the coming year.

The Permanent Fund now amounts to $35,100. To the judicious care and management of this fund, the society is indebted to Mr. R. P. Buck, for its visible increase and good investment, as also for his ever ready co-operation in all things tending to its advantage, and to the well being of its beneficiaries. The managers especially, tender to him their thanks for his innumerable kind courtesies extended to themselves in the fulfillment of their duties, and for his good counsel and aid at all times when applied to by them.

To Mr. J. P. Martin, the Graham Institution is largely indebted for his great interest in its prosperity, and for his active movements in all things that may tend to its advantage or permanent good. The late Mrs. Martin was always conspicuous as a liberal donor to this, as well as to many other charities of this city, and with a depth of feeling and purity of sentiment that must ever mark her surviving partner as a liberal, true-hearted appreciator of her worth and benevolence, Mr. Martin in May last, (shortly after her decease) sent to this Institution $5,000, as a "memorial gift," to be added to the permanent Fund in her name. Comment upon the value and delicacy of this tribute to the memory of Mrs. Martin—to her character and private worth—is unnecessary, coming as it does from the loving heart that knew her best.

In the early part of this year, an "Historical Tableaux" entertainment was given by Mr. Hagar, at the Academy of Music, half the proceeds of which were given for the benefit of this Institution, the result was $727.32 for the treasury.

Mr. Hagar received, through the press, the especial thanks of the managers for his contribution, as well as for his finished and highly interesting entertainment. Mr. Hagar, with continued interest in this "Home," offered a repetition of the same entertainment the past holidays, but the time specified being so near the Annual Donation Party, that the managers feared a too great trespass upon the liberality of their friends. Their thanks are cheerfully tendered to Mr.

Hagar and his accomplished daughter, for their kind sympathy with this charitable Institution.

The managers respectfully refer all applicants and their friends, to the "Rules for Applicants," published yearly, in the reports of this society. In those "Rules" will be found all the preliminaries necessary for admission, which will be strictly required by the Application Committee—no deviation can be made in favor of any individual case, as stated precedents, become serious troubles, in the future.

The Institution now contains—

46 Inmates—24 native born ; 22 foreign.

6 Servants,

6 Entered during the year,

6 Died,

2 Expelled.

Mrs. Elizabeth Parks, died May 16th, 1869, aged 76 ; disease, Cancer ; born in London, England. Entered the Home July 9th, 1858. A great and patient sufferer, intelligent and pious woman.

Mrs. Ann Ally, died June 29th, 1869, aged 79 ; disease, Old Age ; born in Boston, Mass. Entered the Home November 23d, 1868 ; member of the Dutch Reformed Church.

Mrs. Isabella Maxwell, died July 5th, 1869, aged 75 ; born in England. Entered the Home December 4th, 1860 ; disease, Paralysis ; member of the Dutch Reformed Church.

Mrs. Jane Eliza Russell, died July 6th, 1869, aged 70 ; disease of the Heart ; born in New York. Entered the Home March 4th, 1862 ; member of the Dutch Reformed Church.

Mrs. Catharine Boswell, died Sept. 18th, 1869, aged 80 years; disease, Paralysis; born in Scotland. Entered the Home October 7th, 1852. Member of Sands Street Methodist Church. Her husband was a clergyman of this denomination. She was a pious, devoted, christian woman.

Mrs. Hannah Roebody, died November 29th, 1869, aged 74; disease, Consumption; born in Hempstead, Long Island. Entered the Home, October 18th, 1867.
(Miss Jane Howard—removed to other care.)

The above mortuary account does not indicate any unusual number of deaths amongst so many on their homeward journey of life. Indeed, it may be a subject of congratulation that so few have left us, when our aged friends, so many of them, have already passed the allotted time of three score years and ten.

The thanks of the Board are most cordially tendered to Dr. Corey, of Carlton Avenue, for his prompt and faithful attendance upon the invalid inmates, and for his valuable advice and assistance in all sanitary matters belonging to the Home, which have been of essential advantage in very many cases to the managers, and so cheerfully and gratuitously rendered.

The following condensed reports will furnish all necessary information of the internal workings and arrangements for the comfort and well being of the beneficiaries, and will give also the views of each committee, as regards their peculiar duties, in the several departments over which they preside.

THE VISITING COMMITTEE REPORT

That they have fulfilled the duties assigned to them regularly, and with great satisfaction to themselves; having found the domestic arrangements in perfect order, and the usual routine of duties properly performed by the inmates as well as by the employees. They have partaken of the food served for the table twice each week, during the past twelve months, and invariably report in their monthly statements, their entire approval of all things provided for the food of the old ladies—it being of good quality, suited to their impaired digestion, and abundant in quality. They desire that the thanks of the Board be tendered to Mrs. Caroline Wright, matron, for her great attention and good management in her respective duties, and for the general good order of the establishment.

These several committees—making 12 during the year—(two ladies serving each month) all agree in their statements of the good order and judicious management of the domestic affairs of the Home, and of the very general satisfaction expressed by the old ladies, as regards their own comfort and supplies—a gratifying state of things to those who give their time and actual labor, in many cases, to the care of these aged friends.

THE PULPIT COMMITTEE REPORT

That the clergy of Brooklyn and Williamsburgh most willingly respond to their calls upon their professional services on the Sabbath, as well as for the more serious duties of the sick chamber. They are to these dying souls the starlight of heaven 'mid the dark shadows of life's evening, to guide them to a more perfect day. How much is given to these clerical comforters, in the privileges of their ministration to these departing souls, who but wait their Master's bidding, ere they yield their last breath, and away. How well are they recompensed for their labors, by the joy and peace, they so well know how to give. If it is a labor, it must also be a great happiness in the harvest time of their duties on earth, to know that they have bestowed so much upon others, of their own religious peace of mind, faith and hope. Their reward is, in their Saviour's love. A growing interest in this Institution is apparent amongst the younger portion of the clergy, and also manifested particularly, by those more recently appointed ministers in the various churches of Brooklyn. They wish to hear of its success, its needs—and ask to share in the Sabbath worship, and the solemnities of the bier—or to offer up their fervent prayers for divine aid to the flitting soul.

It is a most heartfelt gratification to the managers that the heads of our churches should so warmly sympathize with them in their duties.

THE APPLICATION COMMITTEE REPORT

But six admissions during the past year. Many applications have been examined by them, but were rejected upon good and sufficient grounds. It seems very difficult for an applicant to understand that this "Home" is a Charity, intended only for those who have no means of support, or relatives able to afford it to them. The Committee are put to a great deal of unnecessary trouble on this account, as after receiving what appear to be, the most approved testimonials, and spending hours in investigating them, they find that the applicant has either private means of her own, or friends who are able, but not willing to provide for her old age. This, unfortunately in many instances, is ascertained too late—after the beneficiary has been admitted, giving much trouble and dissatisfaction to all parties concerned. They, therefore, ask of all persons who may give testimonials to applicants to read attentively the Constitution and Laws regulating the “Home,” as well as rules for applicants published yearly in the Reports, before recommending any one to the benefits of this Institution. In many cases, the truly worthy “Indigent Female,” is robbed of her rights by this thoughtless selfishness.

It is the most important and responsible Committee connected with the Institution, and also the most arduous; requiring sound judgment, stern inflexibility of character, that must too frequently war with the tenderer nature of woman’s sympathies. To pity, and not relieve, is a hard trial to our better feelings. There must be laws, and laws must be enforced, to regulate properly any Institution organized for the well-being of the many.

THE PURCHASING COMMITTEE’S REPORT

Still harps upon high prices as the cause of large drafts upon the Treasury—which all know to be verified in their own private accounts. The fluctuations in the Gold Room seem to vibrate in the most remote corners of trade, and makes a hardly justifiable excuse for the continued high prices of the small supplies of the household.

Repairs of the building, painting, new furnace, &c., &c., have materially swelled this year’s accounts, which seem to be large, by comparison with the “good old times” before the war. Mrs. J. A. Dayton has been for several years past the disbursing officer of the funds for house supplies, and she often very justly complains of her arduous efforts in behalf of the Home, which must be very engrossing, as well as heavily responsible. She mentions the fact also, that far less has been received in supplies of groceries, vegetables, and other necessities, this past year than formerly, which are as money donations to the "Home" in value, and lessen the money expenditure considerably. She would remind the merchants and farmers, who have heretofore so generously given, not to "weary in well doing" the present season, as both the store-room and larder look vacantly at her, as she investigates their empty shelves. Supplies, however small, are most acceptable.

THE WORK COMMITTEE REPORT

That their usual duties at the Home have been regularly performed, with very little interruption of any kind.

The old ladies, previous to the fair, met with them one day in each week to make fine articles for the table, and were otherwise very industrious with knitting, and fancy articles of various kinds for the same purpose. They were very willing to contribute their efforts, and the hose and mittens alone sold for eighty dollars. The whole amount of their industry sold for $235.75. This is something for them to be proud of. The materials used were from private donation, or purchased for their use by this Committee. The duties of this Committee are, to purchase dry goods to be made up for the use of the inmates when necessary; to supervise this department generally, to facilitate the old ladies in their work, and to induce a good disposition to do what they can in aid of the yearly fair, for their own benefit. They report most favorably as to the willingness and efficiency of the inmates at such times and seasons. They ask for all and any donations from their friends in the dry goods business that they may have to give—knowing how much there may be in their line, of comparatively little value to themselves, yet so very useful and acceptable to the work room at the “Home.”

THE TREASURER'S REPORT

Gives its usual valuable account to the public, containing all, in fact, that a casual inquirer may wish to know of this society.

Mrs. D. M. Stone, the able assistant and Treasurer, has been connected with this society from its commencement, and has ever been most graciously complimented for the strict accuracy of her accounts and the ready complacency with which she renders information to the Board, of all pecuniary matters under her charge.

THE ANNUAL DONATION PARTY AND FAIR

Was held on the 8th and 9th of December, as usual at the Institution. The same programme as formerly was repeated, and the contributions to the various tables were of much the same character, of fancy and useful articles. The sales did not realize as much as the beauty and value of the articles might demand, but a large number of church fairs were at that time in full and fashionable force, therefore the charity fairs were less patronized than on previous occasions. The old ladies' table, always a noticeable feature at this fair, was highly complimented for the neatness, usefulness, and ingenuity of its articles.

During the month of August, the usual "Ride" was given to the old ladies, which they always so much enjoy, and really feel happier and better in spirits and health for a long time after the indulgence. They drove through the Park, thence to Coney Island, lingered long upon the beach, giving a yearning look and parting sigh to the wide waters, and returned to the Home, to partake of a fine repast prepared for them. Some fine music was given to them by a few vocalist amateurs, which excited their warmest thanks, and they retired to their rooms highly pleased with their excursion and its accompaniments. Several of the managers and the matron attended them, and were themselves much gratified by the manifest pleasure evinced by the old ladies.

DONATION OF FLOUR.

The donation of flour each year from the members of the Commercial Exchange of New York City, gives renewed assurance to the managers, of their continued interest in the Institution by their valuable contributions, and renews the vitality of their own energies in making this Aged Women's Home, more and more worthy of such good friends, and kind donors.

The following letter will speak for itself :

NEW YORK, Dec. 7th, 1869.

MRS. C. W. GODDARD :

Dear Madam—As an evidence that the Old Ladies Home is not forgotten "on change," I enclose the names of twenty-two gentlemen, members of the New York Commercial Association, each of whom send a barrel of flour accompanied with their best wishes for the prosperity of the Institution and the happiness of its inmates.

A vote of thanks was unanimously passed by the Board of Managers, at their meeting in January, for this acceptable donation, and was transmitted to the above gentlemen through Mrs. C. W. Goddard.

To the community at large, and to the patrons and friends of this Institution particularly, the managers place their statements for the past year, as well as hopes for the future, before them.

Trusting to former liberality and consideration for this "Home Charity" from the citizens of Brooklyn and its vicinity, the managers go forward with this Christian duty of love and protection to these aged Beneficiaries with strong confidence, faith and trust.

Respectfully submitted,

RULES FOR APPLICANTS.

EVERY applicant for admission must be recommended by one or more subscribers, and must bring satisfactory testimonials of the propriety of her conduct and the respectability of her character. She must also bring a certificate from some respectable physician of this city of her general good health, and that she labors under no disease that must inevitably terminate her life. It will be required that any one admitted to the Asylum shall pay one hundred dollars on her admission, and come provided with a good bed, bedding, and furniture for a room. Furniture and other articles brought into the Asylum are to remain for the benefit of the Institution.

The friend or friends of the applicant will see that the room appropriated for her use is suitably furnished and in order, before the applicant is admitted to the Institution.

The age of persons relieved or admitted into the Asylum must not be under sixty years, unless strongly recommended by necessitous circumstances, in which the Committee shall have discretionary power.

No individuals need apply for admittance except they have been residents of Brooklyn or Williamsburg at least seven years previous to application.

The Board shall have discretionary power to remove any pensioner from the Home to the Insane Hospital who manifests signs of insanity.

Persons who wish to make application for an inmate to this Institution must present it in writing at the meeting of the Board (first Thursday of each month), and the applicant can confer with the Committee at the house of Mrs. THEODORE POLHEMUS, Remsen street, corner of Hicks, on the first Wednesday succeeding the Board meeting.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE

FIRST.—The Matron shall have the entire charge of the house, under the direction of the Visiting Committee, keep it in neat order, and enforce the rules of the house; shall be present at meals; see that they are properly served; that everything is on the table before the family sit down; that suitable nourishment is provided for the sick; proper order preserved at table, and grace said before each meal. She must be respectful and kind to the inmates of the family; never let partiality be shown, but maintain the respect due to her station. If improper conduct is observed in any member of the family, she shall, after the first offence, report the same to the Visiting Committee. She shall keep a record of all donations sent to the house, and by whom; she shall see that all unnecessary lights and fire are put out before ten o'clock.

SECOND.—Family worship is to be regularly performed in the Asylum; every inmate will be expected punctually to attend, except in case of sickness.

THIRD.—It will be required of those who are able to make their own beds and sweep their own rooms every morning, and assist those in the same room who are unable.

FOURTH.—It will be expected of those who are capable, that they will sew, knit, and assist in some domestic duties, rendering such service as they can for the benefit of the Institution, and for the comfort of those more helpless than themselves.

FIFTH.—No inmates will be permitted to leave the Institution to procure work, solicit assistance, or to dispose of any fancy articles made by themselves, unless by special permission of the Visiting Committee.

SIXTH.—Breakfast, from June to October, will be served at 7 o'clock, from October to June, at 8 o'clock; Dinner will be served at one o'clock; Supper before candle-light. All who are able will attend at the general table; if indisposed, a suitable meal will be sent to their rooms.

SEVENTH.—If any inmate wishes to visit her friends, leave of absence must be obtained from the Matron, and information rendered where she intends staying, and the probable length of her visit.

EIGHTH.—No stimulants or spirituous liquors shall be used in the Asylum except by order of the physician ; all, in such cases, to be administered by the Matron.

NINTH.—No profane or improper language shall be allowed in the Asylum.

TENTH.—No visitor shall be admitted on the Sabbath, except by permission of the Visiting Committee. On Wednesday of each week, the friends of the inmates may visit the Home, but at all other times a permit from a Manager will be required.

ELEVENTH.—All cases of sickness in the Home shall be attended by the Physician of the Institution, unless he shall see fit to call in other or additional advice.

TWELFTH.—All persons admitted shall be placed on a probation of six months, after which time the Board of Managers shall act definitely on the case of each one so received, and if not confirmed as permanent inmates, the admission fee, after deducting board at the rate of        per week, shall be returned.

THIRTEENTH.—No inmate will be permitted to interfere or find fault with the Matron ; but if any think they have cause for complaint, they must apply to the Visiting Committee, who will take such order thereon as they may deem proper.

FOURTEENTH.—It is required that all visitors be treated with respect and attention, and conducted through any part of the Asylum they may wish to visit, with the approbation of the Matron or Visiting Committee. Particular attention to be paid to Ministers of the Gospel, and those whose visits are made for religious purposes. No inmates are permitted to invite their friends to give public religious instruction, without the consent of the Committee.

FIFTEENTH.—To preserve perfect harmony in the family, the strictest attention must be paid to the Rules of the Asylum. For the first violation there will be an admonition ; for the second, a complaint will be preferred to the Board ; for a third, the offender may be expelled from the House by a vote of the Board of Managers.

DUTIES OF THE MANAGERS.

The first Directress shall preside at the meetings of the Managers, preserve order, nominate committees, call special meetings, and, in all equal divisions of the Board, give the casting vote. She shall furnish every new Manager with a book, containing in print, the Constitution, and the Rules for the government of the Asylum. When a Manager resigns her seat at the Board, she is to return this book to the First Directress, who will hand it over to her successor.

In the absence of the First Directress, the second shall preside; and if both be absent, a person shall be chosen from among the Managers present to preside at the meeting.

The Recording Secretary shall keep a fair and correct account of all proceedings, a register of all the inmates of the Home, and do all other writing not connected with the duties assigned to other officers.

The Treasurer shall hold the evidences of property belonging to the Society; make payments agreeably to the order of the Managers; keep a fair account of all receipts and expenditures, which shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of the Managers. She shall furnish a monthly abstract of her receipts and expenditures, and of the balance remaining in her hands, and prepare a statement to be laid before the Society at their annual meeting.

The Managers shall be divided into committees of two who, in monthly rotation, shall superintend the Asylum, under the name of the "Visiting Committee."

The Visiting Committee shall visit the Asylum not less than twice during their month; they shall endeavor to be present once at each meal; shall make themselves acquainted with the situation and wants of the inmates; generally direct the concerns of the family, and report their observations in the Minute Book, which book, on the last day of their month, is to be sent to the succeeding committee, for which purpose a list of the committees is to be kept in the book.

The Purchasing Committee shall make all purchases necessary for the family, pay all bills, and present a monthly account of their proceedings to the Board.

THE COMMITTEE FOR RECEIVING APPLICATIONS.—It shall be the duty of this Committee to receive applications, to visit the applicants, inquire into their character and circumstances, and make their report thereon to the Board in writing. It shall also be the duty of this Committee to keep a register of the names of the applicants, the persons by whom they are recommended, and their place of residence.

This Committee shall exact from each applicant, before admission, a full account of all money or property she may possess, and receive such property, or its representative, to be held in trust—subject to the direction of the Board—during the life of said inmate. After her death, whatever may remain will (according to the bond signed by her) belong to the Institution.

Any deception practiced in such cases will be considered by the Board sufficient cause of dismissal of such offender. No person will be admitted as an inmate without a written order from the Committee of Application.

CHURCH COMMITTEE.—A Committee of twelve members of the Board of Managers shall be appointed to see that the Asylum is duly supplied with the preaching of the Gospel, and have a general superintendence of this important concern. Any minister, properly authorized as a preacher of the Gospel, by an Evangelical denomination of Christians, may be cordially received, and none other will be admitted. The whole duty of supplying the Asylum with the preaching of the Gospel shall devolve on this Committee, which they will be expected carefully and conscientiously to discharge; and the other members of the Board of Managers will be required to communicate with this Committee and obtain their consent previous to introducing any one into the Asylum as a religious instructor. The Committee shall, as far as practicable, have the Asylum supplied with preaching once or twice on the Sabbath. The Committee shall make such regulations as may appear to them proper and regular, with respect to prayer meetings, or any other religious meetings, from time to time. The Committee shall give verbal instructions to the Matron how to act in relation to this subject in the absence of the Committee.

The duties of the Managers appear to be generally comprised in the foregoing rules; in addition to which, it shall be considered the duty of the Visiting Committee at the Asylum, during their stated period of attendance, not only to inquire into the temporal welfare of its inmates, but to visit them in their several rooms, and endeavor to ascertain their spiritual state, giving them such advice and instruction as may be in their power, and the circumstances of the case may render necessary.

BOND.

The Subscribers having been received as inmates of the Home, do hereby agree to the rules and regulations of the House as adopted by the Managers. And in consideration of the care and attention of the Managers, and the expenses of the establishment, we do hereby severally make over to the Association all such utensils, beds, bedding and household stuffs and furniture as we have brought or shall bring to the Home, for our own use, to the end that the quiet and comfort of the Home may not be disturbed in the event of our removal or death, but that all things may remain for our successors. And, whereas, we have been reduced in the course of Divine Providence to a state of dependence, but the same kind Providence may hereafter bless us with the accession of property, so as to enable us to retire from this Home, and possibly to become contributors to it, we, and each of us do hereby further appoint the Chairman of the Advisory Committee of the Society for the time being, our Attorney and Trustee, to receive for us respectively, and to sell or dispose of all estates, real and personal, of every description, to which we shall hereafter or may be now entitled.

And we hereby assign the said estates, and empower the said Chairman, and his successors in office accordingly, to the end that the Association may be reimbursed for the support and supplies that shall have been furnished to us respectively, as far as such estates may extend, and the balance, if any, to be applied for the support of the Institution.

Witness our hands and seals, the day and year set opposite to our names, respectively.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE MANAGERS.

Resolved, That we shall, from this day henceforward, make it our especial duty to see that all the laws and regulations of this Institution be strictly enforced, binding alike upon the Managers, Matron, inmates and servants. And if any more than a slight reprimand be necessary to any one, or for any innovation whatever during the week, the Visiting Committee for that time shall make a note of it, and present it to the Monthly Board whilst in session.

Resolved, That no complaint made without the knowledge of the Visiting Committee will be received by any of the Managers. The Matron shall make her communications through the Visiting Managers, or in writing to the Board. The inmates shall make their communications directly through their Visiting Managers.

Resolved, That the Visiting Committee shall confer on matters of importance with any two of the officers, in the absence of the First Directress.

Resolved, That the friends of the sick shall be admitted to all the privileges of a well-ordered household under such circumstances, thereby confining themselves in all things to the "Rules of the Institution," making their attention acceptable, but in no way interfering with the Matron in her duties towards the sick or dying.

Resolved, That in the case of the death of an inmate, all her personal effects will be taken charge of by the Visiting Committee for that month, and afterwards distributed by the Work Committee. The friends or others can remove nothing from the Institution without permission from said Work Committee or from the Board of Managers.

Resolved, That the Matron shall confer with the Visiting Committee on such occasions, and abide by their directions in all things pertaining to the care of the sick or preparations for the dead. Notice of extreme illness or death of an inmate shall be given to two (or more if convenient) of the officers of the Board, on all occasions, and a record of nativity, age, disease and demise, be kept and sent to the Corresponding Secretary.

Resolved, That in case of indisposition preventing the Matron from attending the prescribed religious exercises of the day, or detaining her from her position at the head of the table, she shall appoint or request some one of the inmates most capable of so doing, to take her place in performing said duties ; and if the illness is frequent and of long continuance, the Visiting Committee shall provide a substitute—pro tem,—until the next meeting of the Board. That in no case but by special act of Providence shall these duties be omitted.

Resolved, That all favoritism towards any individual shall be positively ignored in the administration of the duties of the Managers of this Institution, or to the settlement of any claims or complaints made to her by any member of the Institution. The "strict letter of the law" must be sternly adhered to in all cases.
